Written by Philip Rood
Saturday, 15 December 2012 08:22

Ruslan will make his solo debut on January 22 with the release of 'Carry On.' This album is a follow-up to his previous release with theBREAX, 'Never Arrive,' which rose to #3 on the iTunes Hip-Hop Charts in December of 2011.

In making his solo debut, Ruslan will be further developing the themes found on “Never Arrive” and exploring new musical ground, as well. “This album will feel very different from what people may expect of me and my past music of theBREAX,” said Ruslan about “Carry On.”

This will also be the first official album release for Ruslan under the newly formed Kings Dream Entertainment. Ruslan explained the team effort from Kings Dream that went into the creation of the album, “I'm excited to be working with an amazing in-house production team with DJ Rek, Jruckers, and Bam holding down the majority of the music.

Never one afraid to take risks with his art, Ruslan talked about what people can expect from the music on the album, “the launch of Kings Dream has given me the liberty to explore and rediscover the type of music I'm really passionate about.”

Ruslan will be headlining a special concert to celebrate the release of 'Carry On' at the San Diego House of Blues on January 20th. Tickets are available now on the San Diego House of Blues website.

Said Ruslan about the release, “I’m focused and excited. I can’t wait for everyone to hear this record.”

'Carry On' will be available on iTunes on January 22nd.

Watch our recent interview with Ruslan and Beleaf of theBREAX on the label and their upcoming projects.